

Eskişehir YESDİL

Verb + Object + Preposition + Gerund

N.	VERB	TURKISH MEANING	SAMPLE SENTENCES
1.	accuse someone of suçlamak	The officials accused the manager of taking bribes.
2.	apologise to someone for özür dilemek	I apologise to you for losing my temper.
3.	arrest someone for tutuklamak	The police arrested Roy for selling drugs.
4.	ask someone for bir şey istemek	I asked Jim for lending me some money.
5.	blame someone for suçlamak	She blames her husband for ruining her life.
6.	charge someone for fiyat talep etmek	The shop charged me for delivering the furniture.
7.	charge someone with suçlamak	The police have charged Fred with murdering the victim.
8.	complain to someone about şikayet etmek	I complained to the boss about not feeling appreciated at work.
9.	compliment someone on iltifat etmek, övmek	Bob complimented Jack on being well-trained.
10.	congratulate someone on tebrik etmek	My teacher congratulated me on doing so well in my exams.
11.	deter someone from caydırmak, yıldırmak	The clouds deterred us from going on a picnic.
12.	devote oneself to kendini adanmak	Samantha devoted herself to bringing up her children.
13.	discourage someone from caydırmak, cesaretini kır.	Your remarks won't discourage me from studying harder.
14.	forgive someone for affetmek	His father didn't forgive Jack for lying to him.
15.	involve someone in dahil etmek	They involve their children in giving important decisions.
16.	keep someone from alıkoymak	Please keep silent! Don't keep me from studying.
17.	prevent someone from önlemek	The man in charge prevented us from entering the site.
18.	protect someone from korumak	The police protected the people from being shot.
19.	punish someone for cezalandırmak	The school punished Jack for disobeying the rules.
20.	rescue someone from kurtarmak	The lifeguard has rescued the little child from drowning.
21.	stop someone from durdurmak/önlemek	The mishaps couldn't stop us from enjoying our trip.
22.	suspect someone of şüphelenmek	Becky suspects Jim of lying to her.
23.	thank someone for teşekkür etmek	David thanked everyone for helping him with the project.
24.	warn someone about bir konuda uyarmak	The doctor warned me about using the drug carefully.
25.	warn someone against bir şeye karşı uyarmak	The police warned tourists against shopping in unknown places.