

TEST 3

1. Mr. Smith : Can I speak to Mr. Jones, please?
Secretary ;
Mr. Smith : Unfortunately I can't. I'll phone him tomorrow.
- A) He's in a meeting. Can you ring back in an hour?
 B) One moment please. I'll just check.
 C) I'm afraid he's busy. Can he phone you back later?
 D) I'm sorry, he's out. May I take a message, please?
 E) No, he's not here this week. Could you phone back next week?
2. Lydia : I bet there's a lovely view of the sunset from the top of that hill.
Miranda :
Lydia : Yes, it's too late tonight.
- A) Shall we go and have a look?
 B) It's quite a long way. Have we got time?
 C) The sun doesn't set for another three hours, does it?
 D) Let's go and see it tomorrow evening.
 E) How romantic! What a pity it's raining.
3. Giles : Would you like a glass of wine?
Marcia :
Giles : Oh, there's some fruit-juice if you want.
- A) I'm fine, but Patricia hasn't got a drink.
 B) I'm afraid we have to be leaving now.
 C) I don't suppose there's anything non-alcoholic?
 D) Thank you. Now, what can I give the children?
 E) Actually I think I've had a bit too much to eat already.
4. Bert : Was your house damaged in the storm last week?
Stan :
Bert : That's unlucky. We only lost a few tiles from the roof.
- A) Fortunately it was nothing serious.
 B) Well, quite badly we thought but not compared to your house.
 C) Our house is modern so it's quite strong.
 D) A bit, but we were out at the time.
 E) Yes, I think our area received the worst of the gales.
5. Assistant : What do you think of these, madam?
Customer : The style's fine, but have you got any with lower heels?
Assistant :
Customer : Oh, I'm far too old to worry about things like that. I just want something comfortable.
- A) Not in this size, I'm afraid.
 B) I'll just go and have a look.
 C) How much lower would you like?
 D) Yes, but they're almost double the price.
 E) They are the fashion this summer.
6. Imogen : Why did you just ignore Stephen?
Emma : Because he was so rude to me at the party.
Imogen :
Emma : What if it was? He still hasn't apologised to me, you know.
- A) Yes, but he said he was sorry.
 B) You should be the one to make a move.
 C) You're not still thinking about that are you?
 D) But that was over a week ago!
 E) Oh really! He was only joking!
7. Rachel : Have you done the washing?
Clare : It's in the machine now.
Rachel :
Clare : Well, I'm sorry, but I've only just come home myself.
- A) Did you put my jeans in for me?
 B) What time did you switch it on?
 C) Oh no! It'll never dry by the morning.
 D) I forgot to leave my blouse out.
 E) Didn't you do any earlier on?
8. Jacob : I don't suppose you remembered to buy any milk, did you?
Martha : Well, as a matter of fact I did!
Jacob :
Martha : No, actually, you won't! I need it for this evening's meal.
- A) Thanks. I'll help you with your bags.
 B) Great. I'll make some coffee.
 C) Do you want me to pay you back?
 D) Well done! I'll get it next time.
 E) You didn't get any biscuits, did you?

9. Tessa : Where on earth did you that ridiculous hat?
Nigel : Don't you like it? My brother gave it to me.
Tessa :
Nigel : Thanks very much, but I think it suits me.

- A) If it was a present, I suppose you have to wear it.
 B) Couldn't you have told him you didn't like it?
 C) Surprisingly enough, it looks quite good on you!
 D) Well, he obviously has as little taste as you!
 E) Actually, I was joking. I do like it!

10. Melinda : Why didn't you come to the party last night?
Natalie : My uncle came round unexpectedly.
Melinda :
Natalie : Sorry, but the minute arrived, we all went for dinner.

- A) You might have phoned.
 B) Did you have a nice evening?
 C) Is that the uncle from Australia?
 D) You missed a really good night.
 E) What time did he arrive?

11. Vicky : I'm so glad Pete got that job he applied for.
Bruce :
Vicky : I know, "but the chances of promotion are excellent.

- A) Me too. In another ten years he'll be a manager,
 B) Well, the salary's really not very good.
 C) Yes, but I think he'd go further with a different firm.
 D) just hope he appreciates his good luck.
 E) It's amazing — he doesn't even have the right qualifications.

12. Customer : This wine hasn't been chilled properly.
Waiter :
Customer : I see. Never mind then.

- A) This wine is always served at room temperature, sir.
 B) I can fetch you another bottle, if you like.
 C) Would you like some ice with it, sir?
 D) I'm sorry, sir. May I recommend another one?
 E) Yes, I'm afraid that's a problem many of our customers come across

13. Boy : Mum, have you ironed my shirt yet for tomorrow?
Mother : No, I haven't got time. You do it
Boy :
Mother : Well, now's a good time to learn, isn't it?

- A) Dad says that housework is the woman's responsibility.
 B) Oh Mum! I've got to revise for my exams.
 C) How can I? I've never done it before.
 D) I hate ironing — it's so boring.
 E) I can't. My driving lesson starts in five minutes.

14. Joan : Which washing powder do you use? This shop stocks so many Deirdre : I use that one. It really gets my whites clean.
Joan :
Deirdre : Yes, but it's not as gentle on delicate materials as mine.

- A) It's really expensive, isn't it?
 B) I used to use this one, but it didn't really work at lower temperatures.
 C) Does it? There's such a choice, I can never decide which to buy.
 D) This one is cheaper and still effective,
 E) But can it get rid of those really difficult stains?

15. Lorna : Have you ever been to the top of that hill?
Alicia :
Lorna : I'll borrow the car and we can go on Saturday, if you want.

- A) Yes, once, but there's not really much to see.
 B) No, never — it's so far away.
 C) Yes, do you feel up to walking there?
 D) I haven't, but I'd like to go one day during the week.
 E) It's a bit difficult, because the roads are blocked by fallen trees.

16. Tracey : What do you think of Sandra's new hair-style?

Debbie :

Tracey : Still, it'll be a lot easier to look after.

- A) It's much better. She looks completely different.
- B) It's certainly interesting. I must tell you what her mother said about it.
- C) I didn't think it looked any different, really.
- D) I like it. I might get mine done like that.
- E) I'm not sure. It doesn't suit her that short.

17. Hairdresser : Your hair's in really bad condition at the ends.

Customer : Well, being so long, it's difficult to look after.

Hairdresser :

Customer : Alright then, but don't cut more than that off.

- A) I think a really short cut would suit you.
- B) Have you thought about trying a different style?
- C) If I take about ten centimeters off, it'll look much better.
- D) To keep it looking good you should have it trimmed regularly.
- E) Can I ask which hairdresser last cut your hair?

18. Hilary : Can I borrow your suntan lotion, please?

Belinda :

Hilary : Yes, but I burn very easily.

- A) There's only a bit left, so don't use too much.
- B) Mine is for sensitive skin. Is that alright?
- C) Yes. Although your skin is so dark, you might need it.
- D) But there's hardly any sun at all today!
- E) Of course, it's really effective.

19. William: Which hotel are you staying at?

Sandra : We've got a room at the Marina Hotel.

William :

Sandra : Yes, but it's a long walk to the beach.

- A) Oh, that's meant to be really cheap isn't it?
- B) We stayed there last year, but we found it too noisy.

C) Really? That's right on the other side of town!

D) We thought about that one but we wanted a hotel right on the coast.

E) That's quite nice, isn't it? It needs a swimming pool, though.

20. Susanna : Is it safe for the children to swim in the sea here by themselves?

Luke :

Susanna : Good, I'd much, rather just sunbathe by myself.

- A) I think so, but I thought we were all visiting the castle today,
- B) Oh yes, it's quite shallow and there are no rocks.
- C) It's safe, but the weather's too cold today.
- D) The water's clean but it gets deep very quickly.
- E) Not really. We should go a couple of kilometers further down the coast.

21. Gemma : Can you take a photo of me in front of the restaurant?

Eleanor :

Gemma : OK, we'll come back in a few hours, then.

- A) Sorry, I finished the film this morning.
- B) Oh Gemma. I've already taken three of you here!
- C) It's not a very interesting shot. Why don't you stand next to that statue?
- D) Well, it's difficult because the sun is in the wrong place.
- E) I've only got a few left and I'm saying them for our visit to the amphitheatre this afternoon.

22. Georgia : Is it possible to walk to the museum from here?

Elaine :

Georgia : Oh, I'll do it another time, then.

- A) You must be exhausted with all the sightseeing you do!
- B) Oh yes, but go today because it's closed for repairs all next week.
- C) Yes, but it'll have closed by the time you get there tonight.
- D) Well, we're going this afternoon if you'd like to join us.
- E) Yes, but I'll draw you a map because it's quite complicated.

23. Thomas : Can you lend me some money?

Ben :

Thomas : I did, but I've left it at home.

- A) Didn't you go to the cash point machine?
- B) Your pocket looked full a few minutes ago!
- C) Don't tell me you've forgotten your wallet again.
- D) No way. You didn't pay me back the last time.
- E) I thought you just got ten pounds from your dad.

24. Isabel : Why isn't the television working?

Helen :

Isabel : Maybe we should replace it then.

- A) There's been a power cut.
- B) I don't know. It's very old.
- C) You haven't plugged it in yet.
- D) It was working five minutes ago!
- E) Have you broken it?

25. Maria : The meeting should finish by nine o'clock. What time is the last bus back?

Stuart :

Maria : Oh, I will have to get a lift home with someone then.

- A) I'll just find out for you.
- B) They run until ten o'clock.
- C) I can pick you up, if that's the problem.
- D) I think they stop at half past eight.
- E) I don't know, but you could easily get a taxi.

26. Ruth : Have you written to your mother yet?

Neil :

Ruth : Well, she'll worry if she doesn't hear from you soon.

- A) No, but I phoned her this morning.
- B) I sent a postcard two days ago.
- C) I haven't had time to do it until now.
- D) She knows I'm getting on quite well here.
- E) Yes, could you post it for me?

27. Customer : Excuse me; are there any desserts without chocolate in them?

Waitress : Well, you could have ice-cream or fruit.

Customer :

Waitress : Strawberry or peach flavour?

- A) Is there anything else?
- B) Oh, I'll just leave it then.
- C) What kind of fruit do you have?
- D) Can I have both?
- E) Ice-cream I think, please.

28. Andrea : Have you seen Jenny's new Fiat?

Beth :

Andrea : Me too. I wish mine were as cheap.

- A) Yes, I'm really envious!
- B) No, but it sounds lovely.
- C) The rent is really low, isn't it?
- D) No, but I'm going this evening.
- E) I haven't, but she told me it was quite big.

29. Kirsten : Do you know what time the supermarket closes tonight?

Jeff :

Kirsten : Right, I'll go there instead

- A) I'm not sure, but last night it was open until eight.
- B) I think it's open quite late tonight, so you have plenty of time.
- C) Oh, not for ages — much later than the local shops, anyway.
- D) Quite soon, probably, but I can give you a lift if you want.
- E) About six, but the shop round the corner is open until nine.

30. Megan : Where did you go on holiday this year?

Marcus :

Megan : Really? We went there last year.

- A) We couldn't afford one, unfortunately, so we just stayed at home.
- B) We stayed in that village that was on TV yesterday.
- C) We went to visit my parents for a few days.
- D) We spent a week at a new resort that's just opened up further down the coast.
- E) Nowhere, really. We just drove round and visited a few places.

31. Carolyn : What did you think of Mary's flat?

Tim :

Carolyn : Me too. I thought she would have preferred something more old-fashioned.

- A) Well, I was surprised she'd decorated it in such a modern style.
- B) It looks very smart, I think, considering most of the things are second-hand.
- C) I was amazed when she said she'd done it all herself.
- D) She must have spent a fortune! Most of the furniture looks over 100 years old I thought.
- E) Absolutely beautiful. I told her to be proud of herself.

32. Charlie : I heard your dad had gone into hospital.

Delia :

Charlie : Oh good, I thought it was something serious.

- A) Well, we couldn't really look after him properly at home any more.
- B) Yes, he was really quite ill but he's slowly getting better now.
- C) Well, just for a few days. He'd love you to visit him.
- D) Yes, but just for some routine tests the doctor recommended.
- E) Yes, he's back at home now. But they're still not sure what the problem is.

33. Sonia : Are those the flowers you bought the day before yesterday?

Lucinda :

Sonia : Well, it's probably because it's so hot in here.

- A) Yes - they're beautiful but they don't smell very much.
- B) Some of them. I put most of them in the kitchen where it's cooler.
- C) Yes. I'm disappointed that they didn't last very long.
- D) Yes, but I think they'd thrive better in a warmer room.
- E) That's right, but unfortunately Susan is allergic to them.

34. Pat : If I'd known the weather would change so suddenly, I'd have brought a coat.

Harry :

Pat : Yes, but it looked so sunny this morning.

- A) Me too; mind you — it's been overcast all day.
- B) Well, I warned you how unpredictable the weather is round here.
- C) I know, but the weather forecast said it would be fine throughout the day.
- D) I think you're overreacting a bit — this is only a light breeze.
- E) It's strange; the weather is usually quite settled at this time of year.

35. Ralph: I really think you ought to go to the doctor about those spots on your face.

Sean:

Ralph: You've been saying that for the past two years. I don't think they will.

Sean: You've got a point, but to be honest, I'm a bit afraid of doctors.

- A) They're no big deal. I'm sure they'll go away on their own soon enough.
- B) I went yesterday and he gave me some medicated cream to put on them.
- C) I would, but I'm not sure if my health insurance will cover the cost of it.
- D) Actually, I've just made an appointment to see one next Friday afternoon.
- E) I'm a bit nervous that the doctor will tell me it's something really serious.

36. Zachary: Are you interested in joining us on a trip to the mountains this weekend?

Charles:

Zachary: That's too bad. Maybe next time.

Charles: I hope so. I'm getting really tired of all this unpaid overtime.

- A) I would, but if I work this Saturday, I'll receive a £250 bonus on payday.
- B) Thanks for inviting me, but actually, I can't stand going to the country.
- C) I can't go until Saturday evening. Why don't I meet you at the camping ground?
- D) Actually, my brother is getting married on Saturday and I'm the best man.
- E) I'd love to, but once again, the boss has told me I have to work on Saturday.

37. Edward: You've been on that computer for hours! What are you doing?

Sheila: There's this great new game and I just can't get enough of it.

Edward:

Sheila: Oh, sorry. I didn't know there was anyone waiting to use it.

- A) Really? When did you get it? Is "it better than the last one you had?"
- B) Don't you know you're at work and not sitting in a game room?
- C) Can you just finish up quickly? I want to lock up the office and go home.
- D) That's what's been slowing down the whole network all afternoon.
- E) Don't you think it's about time you let someone else have a chance?

38. Heather:

Gertrude: If I were you, I'd take it. It's better to be safe than sorry.

Heather: I don't know. It's such a pain to carry it all day and not use it.

Gertrude: Well, it's up to you. Don't complain to me when you come home all wet.

- A) Do you think I could put my raincoat in your car in case it starts raining at the picnic?
- B) Do you really think I need my umbrella? The forecast says rain, but it's sunny now.
- C) Do we need to take towels to your pool party or do you have enough for everyone?
- D) Are you wearing your rubber boots or do you think they're totally unnecessary?
- E) I can't decide whether to wear a raincoat or carry an umbrella. What do you think?

39. Dominic: I can't believe how sore I felt after playing just one game of football yesterday.
Frederick:
- Dominic: I'm sure you're right, but I simply don't have the time nowadays.
Frederick: Well, I guess you've either got to find the time or live with the pain.
- A) Really? I feel fine except that I'm a bit tired from having spent hours at the pub after the match.
B) I know what you mean. I felt as if I had run a marathon and been run over by a couple of cars.
C) Maybe we should try to play football more often — it is a lot of fun even if it does hurt the next day.
D) If you exercised regularly, a little physical exertion wouldn't cause you so much discomfort.
E) I'm in a lot of pain myself. I'm glad the game was only an hour and not 90 minutes.

40. Margaret: It's your firm's annual dinner on Saturday, isn't it?
Theresa: Yes, but I really don't feel like going.
Margaret:
- Theresa: That's true, but I can't help thinking I'll regret it if I don't go.
- A) Well, it's not compulsory to attend, so you don't have to.
B) Why not? It's at a superb hotel and I think you'll have a great time.
C) If I were you, I'd call them on Saturday and say my mother was sick.
D) You need to improve your attitude if you want to succeed.
E) It's only one evening and it'll probably finish reasonably early.
